

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

James E. Rogers
College of Law

NATIONAL LAW LIBRARY FELLOWS PROGRAM

Forge Your Path to Excellence in Legal Information

Are you passionate about shaping the future of legal information and law librarianship? Take the first step towards a fulfilling career in the legal information profession by joining the University of Arizona Daniel F. Cracchiolo Law Library National Library Fellows Program without leaving your hometown.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Elevate your skills and expertise through compensated, immersive, hands-on training as a law library Fellow. A generous grant from the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services allows us to partner with law libraries nationwide and bring the National Law Library Fellows Program to you.

WHAT WE OFFER

- ▶ Real-World Experience: Work alongside seasoned professionals in diverse library departments, gaining invaluable insights and practical skills.
- ▶ Financial Support: Receive funding support—including a salary, fringe benefits and tuition remission for Master of Arts in Library and Information Science (MLIS) course credits taken online during the fellowship—to fuel your educational journey.
- ▶ Professional Development: Access tailored guidance, mentorship and resources to enhance your learning and career prospects.

learn more

WHY PARTICIPATE

- ▶ Expand Your Horizons: Discover new pathways to the legal information profession through this expansion of University of Arizona's well-established Law Library Fellows program.
- ▶ Make a Difference: Contribute to the diversity and vibrancy of the legal information field.
- ▶ Forge Connections: Build lasting relationships with local mentors, peers and industry leaders, laying the foundation for a successful career.

HOW IT WORKS

- ▶ Contact us first to discuss your ideas and make a plan.
- ▶ If you already have a law library in your area that's agreed to host you as a Fellow, great! If not, we will try to secure a placement for you.
- ▶ Apply to the University of Arizona Online MA in Library & Information Science.
- ▶ Once accepted, apply to the National Law Library Fellows Program.

LEARN MORE

Seize this opportunity to shape your future and make a meaningful impact. Learn more about our National Law Library Fellows Program and discover how you can join the exciting legal information profession. Apply, contact us today, and embark on a journey of growth, discovery and excellence.

Visit us online

or email

Teresa Miguel-Stearns at tmiguelstearns@arizona.edu

This project was made possible in part by the Institute of Museum and Library Services, Grant 254857-OLS-23.